When I was young I loved my lol-li - pops, To me they were a treat; —
I loved sweet cook - ies since I was a child, And al - ways got my fill; —

I loved my hon - ey, jam and choc - late drops. Un - til I found a sweet more sweet. — Sweet cook - ies al - ways sort of made me wild, And now I know they al - ways will. —

'Cause you're the sweet - est thing I ev - er knew, And I've looked all a - round —
I've called my sweets some pret - ty names, that's true, You should have seen them fall; —

To find a name that's sweet e - nough for you, And, Hon - ey, this is what I found. _____
 But this is one that I have saved for you, 'Cause it's the sweet-est name of all. _____

CHORUS.
 When I look in your eyes, here's what I'm think - ing of, — Sweet Cook - ie, Sweet Cook - ie; If you were cn - ly wise you'd know the sweet I love, Sweet Cook - ie Mine. Some times I feel I could steal as I did long be - fore, When I stole Ma's cook - ies from be - hind the pan - try door, And someday soon I feel that I'll steal just one more "Sweet Cookie," Sweet Cook - ie Mine, — Sweet Cook - ie Mine. — When Mine. —

p-f
